

DO YOU REMEMBER—

When "Lys" Wonnacott ran a laundry on Salem avenue? . . . . When Louis Brauer was a manufacturer of all kinds of bread, cakes and pies at the corner of North Church and Main streets? . . . When the Shannon Brothers had a store on Salem avenue? . . . . When the Reese Brothers had the shopping center of Carbondale at 57 Salem avenue and suggested "silk waists for ladies to wear" at the Golden Jubilee? . . . . When Alvord and ~~Male~~ sold best goods at lowest prices at 37 North Main street?

DO YOU REMEMBER—

When Blanche Arnold's home was where the post-office now stands? . . . When James Rutherford operated the original Cash Store and Shopping Center on Salem avenue near the bridge? . . . When the New York Candy Store manufactured their own candies at 20 South Main street—"Fresh Candy Every Hour"? . . . When Lewsley's sold "Boys' Semi-Centennial Caps" for 25 cents.

* * * * *

DO YOU REMEMBER—

When Coogan Brothers were "one price clothiers" on North Main street in the building once belonging to Alexander the Tailor — where the well-dressed man bought his suits? . . . When Mrs. Mary Barrett was the leading milliner and had her shop in the Nealon building on South Main street? This was where Mary E. Galla learned her trade—she later had her own store on North Main street. . . . When Maurice G. Watt carried "Dependable Footwear" in the Watt building on Church street? . . . When B. S. Clark sold "Fine Groceries" at 24 Salem avenue, and Terry Powderly, Jr., was chief clerk?

DO YOU REMEMBER—

When Sam Dotterer was master mechanic for the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company and lived on Garfield avenue near Terrace street? . . . When John Duffy, an early miner, was city treasurer? . . . When Martin Flynn was proprietor of the Harrison House? . . . When P. J. Foster was engineer at No. 7 plane?

DO YOU REMEMBER—

When Anna A. Duffy had a millinery shop at 22 South Main street? . . . When Lyman M. Smith was the bookkeeper and auditor at the Hendrick Manufacturing company? . . . When Alfred Pascoe was president of the Miners' and Mechanics Savings bank? . . . When J. W. Kilpatrick was manufacturing the "Olivette, Jurist and other fine cigars" at 40 South Main street? . . . When H. G. Baker was freight agent for the Erie Railroad here?